

| Thinking of your class, what ways do you provide content? | Always | Frequently | Sometimes | Occasionally | Never |
|--|--------|------------|-----------|--------------|-------|
| lectures delivered by instructor | | | | | |
| lectures created and delivered by students | | | | | |
| PowerPoint Slides delivered in class | | | | | |
| textbook or article readings in print | | | | | |
| textbook or article readings online or digital | | | | | |
| links, notes and other related material online LMS (learning management system) | | | | | |
| notes or handouts distributed in class | | | | | |
| notes or handouts available prior to class | | | | | |
| crowd note taking | | | | | |
| videos | | | | | |
| videos with closed captioning and/or transcripts | | | | | |
| audio/podcasts | | | | | |
| other ways not listed | | | | | |

Creative Commons copyright by Carolee Clyne. Use & modification are allowed with attribution for original Carolee Clyne and you agree to "share alike" with the same copyright rules. Click on image at right to see copyright specifics.

